

Another beautiful story for children by Christian writer Kathleen Watson

What is behind the little grey gate between the trees? Where does it lead to? When 9-year-old Bethany and her friend Holly go exploring, they find themselves at the scene of one of the Psalms in the Bible. Will they stay there or will they be able to come back? This story tells how one of them chooses to live in the Kingdom of God at the same time as living in the world.
